

Lelooska Foundation Confidentiality Agreement

VOLUNTEER CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT: Provision of services contract restricting volunteer from divulging employer’s privileged and confidential information.

Volunteer agrees that any and all knowledge or information that may be obtained in the course of the volunteer service with respect to the conduct and details of the business will be held in strict confidence and will not be disclosed to any person or party without the express written permission of the Lelooska Foundation.

Volunteers may be asked at times to assist with performances or programs sponsored by the Lelooska Foundation but presented by the Lelooska Family or other entities. It is expressly understood that certain “cultural property” including but not limited to songs, stories, dances and masks are hereditary rights and privileges belonging to members of the Lelooska Family, and are not to be shared in any form outside contexts overseen by Lelooska Family members on the grounds of the Lelooska Cultural Center. Volunteers understand that they are not to share above mentioned property in any form including audio, photo, video, or written content during or after their employment without express written permission of both the Lelooska Foundation and Lelooska Family.

In respect to secret methods, devices, construction or machinery used by the Lelooska Foundation or The Lelooska Family in producing living history programs the volunteer agrees that all knowledge gained will remain confidential and concealed from all persons at all times.
